

Welcome to Oklahoma Works

Please read this before using computers!

OESC Rule 240:5-3-3

Oklahoma Works Internet Users Shall:

- Cooperate and follow instructions from Oklahoma Works staff members.
- Promptly relinquish the computer to a staff member when asked.
- Consult an Oklahoma Works staff person before inserting any thumb-drive or memory card into an Oklahoma Works Computer.

Oklahoma Works Internet Users Shall Not:

- Interfere with or disrupt network users, services, or equipment.
- Make any attempt to damage computer equipment or software.
- Make any attempt to alter software configurations.
- Make any attempt to cause degradation of system performance.
- Use any OESC work station for illegal or criminal purposes.
- Access pornographic or gambling sites.
- Violate copyright laws or software licensing agreements while using the Internet computer.
- Engage in any activity which is deliberately malicious, libelous or slanderous.
- Install or download any software.

Members of the public may use this Internet access to look for employment, obtain information concerning prospective employment, prepare resumes, and any other activity associated with searching for employment. A copy of this rule may be obtained from an Oklahoma Works representative. Internet users must comply with all policies and rules or risk losing their Internet privileges at Oklahoma Works.

Oklahoma Works computers are property of Oklahoma Works and will be monitored and checked randomly to determine if inappropriate material has been accessed by the Internet user. Oklahoma Works is not liable for any material that the user may find on the Internet that is inaccurate, incomplete, out of date, or personally offensive to the user. Oklahoma Works assumes no liability for damages, direct or indirect, that may occur to the user or the user's data as a result of being connected to any Oklahoma Works Internet service. Use of the Internet at Oklahoma Works is a privilege, not a right. Minors must be supervised by a parent or responsible adult when using Oklahoma Works' Internet service. Violation of the rules set forth above will result in imposition of the penalties set forth in OESC Rule 240:5-3-4 which can result in the following actions include cancellation of the Internet privileges in the Oklahoma Works office:

If an Internet user is found to have violated any of the restrictions set out in 240:5-3-3, the user will receive a warning for the first violation, a 30 day suspension for the second violation, and an indefinite suspension for the third violation.

WOWDB Approved 10.25.2017

A proud partner of the  American Job Center network